

import sequence from a library, configure and test it, connected to an energy model

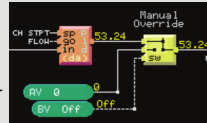

Designer

export specification & verification tests

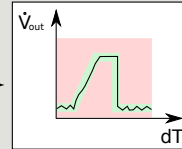

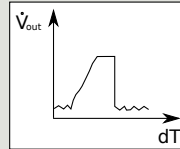

Control provider

submit and deliver controls through code generation

Commissioning agent

verify against design specification

● failed
● untested
● passed